

NATIONAL POPULATION COUNCIL

Population Media Awards 2020

National Population Council announces the 2020 Population Media Awards for coverage of population and development issues including: Reproductive health, Gender, Environment, Migration, Urbanization, Employment, Population growth, Family planning, and the Demographic Dividend among others.

Entries are invited from journalists in the Print and Electronic media to compete for these awards. The entries should have been aired or published in Uganda between June 1st, 2019 and August 31st, 2020. The categories include; Print, Television, Radio and Online.

Guidelines for Submission of Entries

- Entries should be clearly marked with entrant's name, media house, category, email address and phone contact.
- Non-English entries should be accompanied with an English translation.
- Number of submitted entries per participant should not exceed three for one category.
- Duration of submission should not exceed 5 minutes per item for electronic media entries.
- Population Journalist of the year will be selected from entries of the other four categories. Therefore, no entry should be submitted for journalist of the year.
- Electronic media entries should include a short transcript.
- Print media submissions should clearly show name of publication and date when article was published.
- Radio & TV entries should be accompanied with an official letter from the media house confirming that the entries were aired.

Please Note:

- Failure to follow any of the above guidelines will lead to disqualification.
- The winners will receive their awards during the launch of the 2020 State of Uganda Population Report and these range from: Cash prizes, Fellowships and Media equipment.
- The deadline for submission of entries is 5 pm on October 23, 2020.
- Entries should be clearly labeled "Population Media Awards 2020" should be posted, emailed (npcsec@npcsec.go.ug) or physically delivered to:

National Population Council
Statistics House, 2nd floor
9 Colville Street
P.O. Box 2666, Kampala
Atta: Director, Information, Communication & Advocacy

For further enquiries please contact 0 414 705 400 or npcsec@npcsec.go.ug